

And it was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Burchenal, the said section was further amended, by inserting immediately after the words, "or be removed from office," in the 8th line thereof, in the printed bill, these words, "or in any way incompetent to act."

Mr. Burchenal proposed further to amend said section, by inserting immediately after the words, "before any justice of the peace for the county," in the 10th and 11th lines thereof, these words, "by producing a copy of the original judgement."

And the question, thereon, being taken, was determined in the negative.

Mr. Wells moved further to amend said section by appending at the end thereof, the following words:

"And be it further provided, That no execution shall issue in any judgement, to be rendered by a justice of the peace, until 15 days after the date of the rendition thereof.

And the question thereon, being taken, was determined in the negative.

Mr. Steele then moved that the further consideration of said bill be postponed, and that it be again laid on the table.

Determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Buskirk, the third section of the bill was amended, by striking therefrom the following words: "as from other judgements, and to supercede the same, and shall be entitled to all the privileges to which, by law, either party is entitled in all other cases over which justices of the peace in the several counties of this state have jurisdiction."

And inserting, in lieu thereof, the following: "and the same proceedings thereon, shall be had, as are now had, upon appeals from the judgements of justices of the peace, under the acts relating to the recovery of small debts out of court."

Mr. Brawner moved to amend the fifth section of the bill, by striking therefrom, the word "fifty," in the 3d line of that section, in the printed bill, and inserting, in lieu thereof, the word, "ten;" when

Mr. McMahon having called for a division of the question, on that motion, it was accordingly divided and first taken on striking out,

It was resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put on inserting "ten,"
